

Good – Bad

For you I would fake, I would kill, I would cry
It's the least I could do
Was I selfish and careless, did I never try
How was it for you

Should I crawl back home alone or should you come along
Would you please help me to bed
Bring me shelter, give me comfort, let me kneel in the mud
I'm still out on my own

Tell me I'm good, tell me I'm bad
It won't hurt anymore
Tell me your story, tell me lies
It won't hurt anymore

I'll grieve, I'll forgive, but I can not forget
This long way for home
You light up my cigarette and bring in the booze
I'm still out on my own

Tell me I'm good, tell me I'm bad
It won't hurt anymore
Tell me your story, tell me lies
It won't hurt anymore
